

Sales Speech

Presented by Sally Alazab

Introduction

Imagine having a teammate who combines creativity with technical skills and a strong drive to succeed. That's what I bring to every project.

My blend of creativity, technical skills, and commitment to success makes me a valuable addition to any team.

My three main points

01.

Why I am a valuable team member

02.

My Technical Skills

03.

My Success Skills

Why I am a valuable team member

Every team needs members who are collaborative, well-skilled, reliable, and successful. Here is why I am that person.

My Technical Skills

In a collaborative project, technical skills ensure we create something functional and polished. Let's discuss the technical skills I can contribute to my group.

My Success Skills

Group members must have essential skills to successfully complete a project. I will now share the success skills I will contribute to my group.
